Eat in Delight

Singapore been a multi racial society, you can find a large variety of authentic ethnic Chinese, Indian, Malay and Peranakan snacks. If you want to enjoy such rich multi-racial delicacies, hawker centers are your best choice of venue. The hawker centres are open-air complexes with many stalls that sell varieties of affordable and yet tasty food. Hawker centers in Singapore are very unusual and very unique in Asia. All the stalls in the hawker centres have undergone the strict health screening. The sound of the crockery, shouting of food order, the tropical heat, the smell of the fish sauce, ginger and curry, could only be found in our Singapore's food and cultural experience. There are a mixture of Malaysian, Indonesian India, and China food which are the most unique multi-cultural cuisines.
